A Man Is Still A Man

Yeeeah Ah

A man is still a man
whether him wear jacket and tie or walk barefoot
The only difference is whether him good or evil

Oh Ohhh

A man is still a man whether him rich or poor black or white for sure
The only difference is whether him good or evil

Listen Friend

There is a lots of different people in the streets wiping car glass window
This is what they do day to day just to get a little food to eat

Oh oh yeah

Then you have others wearing suit and tie, work a good nine to five

And they take it for granted that they're living a better life

I say the color of our skin don't mean a thing if we do good or commit to sin

We're all judged by the same, and Jah is his holy name So let's all be aware of how we entertain angels unaware

For angels do move through men, whether here or from there

A man is still a man whether him wear jacket and tie, or walk barefoot

The only difference is whether him good or evil

Ohh oh ohh oh

A man is still a man whether him rich or poor black or white for sure

The only difference is whether him good or evil

Yeah eh yeah ah

Everyman class pre dory
'bout the welfare of a man
Be sure we live in love
We treat all men right Born we are all of the same Hear the most I cry

A man is still a man whether him wear jacket and tie, or
The only difference is whether him good or evil
A man is still a man whether him rich or poor black or white for sure
The only difference is whether him good or evil

Hear these words again

Lots of different people lives in the streets and wipe car

nine to five
